D. HECHINGER & CO

Just Now

We are somewhat torn up on the outside of our storerooms by reason of remodeling our windows. When done we will present quite a formidable "Front." The "Inside," however, represents a herculean strength that only is derived from handling merchandise superior in quality and at the prices we sell them—cheaper by far than the ordinary run of ready-made clothing. Here you find the choice production of four or five of the most famous of Rochester's manufacturers.

STOCK CLEARANCE SALE!

A settlement of the estate of the late senior partner of this firm is to be made in January. A necessity of the event is the reduction of stock to the minimum. It is to our interest to convert goods into cash at the sacrifice of profit. It must be a clearance sale in the most comprehensive significance of the term—a sale in which neither cost, value nor loss get a moment's consideration. To reduce critical judgment to the only aim, the highest hope, the fixed determination. No man or woman who knows the value of a dollar, who understands this opportunity to save, will let it pass without taking advantage of it to the full as far as prudence and means permit. While many departments are represented here, it would take double the space this ad. occupies to tell of the dozens of other equally attractive bargains. Call on us, it's the only way to master all the facts.

SIX BIG VALUES!

- No. 1—Melange Cheviot, 45 inches wide, 56c, original price $1. In all the new fall shades. If you can judge values we are sure wisdom will guide you rightly when you see this unusual bargain.
- No. 2—Black Taffeta 27 inches wide, 75c, original price $1. Every yard guaranteed to wear. You may be surprised at the price, but you'll be more surprised at the quality.
- No. 3—Onetta Union Suits, 43c instead of 75c. Soft and fine, well made and finished. Closely knit to withstand many washings. You know the garment too well to need further description.

Everything mentioned above on sale now. Of course early comers have benefit of choice. No disappointments await you, complete satisfaction stamped on every offering.

A DOLLAR

- No. 4—Fancy Suitings, 42 and 45 inches wide, 29c, original price 75c. Dark plaids and mixtures, strictly all wool. Effective for children's dresses, women's waists, wrappers and matinees.
- No. 5—Women's Fleece-lined Stockings, 25c, original price 35c. Fast black, silk fleeces, ribbed or plain top, double sole and heel.
- No. 6—Men's Two-piece Union-wear, 40c, original price 75c. Best Maco cotton, finely woven, strictly finished. A well cut and finished garment.

Everything mentioned above on sale now. Of course early comers have benefit of choice. No disappointments await you, complete satisfaction stamped on every offering.

is worth just what it will bring. If you had a barrel of them in the Desert of Sahara they wouldn't buy a cup of water. Now we are certain it will here during this sale. It might buy a larger package elsewhere but we are not talking of quantities. We refer to quality and value. The following list tells what a dollar will do in some of our departments. It's not a list of exaggerations but a statement of facts.
A Dollar in the Linen Department will buy a splendid Bleached Damask 72 inches wide in rose, fern, lily, clover, and many other patterns. Original price $1.50. The best bed spread you can get for a dollar.
A Dollar in the Colored Dress Goods Department will buy a French Broadcloth worth $1.50 or a Pannet Cloth as soft as velvet worth $1.50 or a Scotch Mixed Coat for walking suits worth $1.50.
A Dollar in the Black Goods Department will buy a French Broadcloth, a Royal Sateen, a Peachie Cheviot, a Camel's Hair, a Milan Cloth, an English Poplin, all 15 yds. wide and worth $1.50 a yard.

Freedom of Speech.

Lexington Herald.

Anarchy cannot be put down by mere force—it cannot be destroyed by violence. Ideas are above the power of physical punishment and cannot be overcome by scaffolds or jails. Whenever men violate the law they can be punished—even as it is just that the assassin of the President be executed. But there is a far greater duty upon us; a far more important obligation resting upon us than the infliction of punishment upon those who break the law. The ideas must be combated; the theories must be exposed; the arguments must be answered; the utterances must be confuted. We believe in free speech—we believe only in free speech; we believe in the Jeffersonian conception that truth left to free combat will triumph; and in the end the evils resulting from even license of speech do not equal the danger of limiting the freedom of speech. Against censorship of press and speech we are unalterably opposed. We make this protest as earnest and as emphatic as we can. Against every proposition to limit the freedom of the press or the freedom of speech we are opposed. We stand by the faith and practice of the fathers. The unchained Bible, the open Church, the free school, the uncontrolled press, the freedom of speech, the inalienable right of life and liberty and pursuit of happiness are our heritage and we press riches and the American people will not surrender, abridge or limit any. They who under the cloak of such impetuous events counsel such impairment are the most potent friends and allies of anarchy.

YELLOW JOURNALISM.

Nowhere in the history of great men, or of great man's deaths, can be found such degradation and religious faith as marked the last hours of William McKinley.

"Among great men, one benighted some plan left incomplete, another asked for 'more light,' another, fretting for the political future, sighed, 'My country, how I leave thee!'"

"He faced this world and the other world with the quiet, confident hope of a man who had done his best."—New York Journal, September 15.

And when he was doing the hardest of his best, and doing it in such a way as to enable him to "face the other world with a quiet, confident hope," such as you say no other great man has been able wholly to entertain, you said of him that he was—

"An obedient jellyfish."

"An abject, weak, feeble, incompetent poltroon."

"Far one, the most despised and hated creature in the hemisphere; his name is hated, his figure burned in effigy."

You had not then a friend to stop the slaver of your hate; but, in the name of the unassumed humanity recoiling at a monstrous exposure of moral idiocy, have you now none to stop the slobber of your fears?

Pale Weak, Run-down Overworked Women

Look sick, nervous, tired out with household and maternal cares, constipated, liver torpid, with bloated, muddy, sallow complexion, blood thin and impure, lead building up and a thorough renovation of their systems. This is the time you need such a great nerve and stomach builder as the great tonic laxative. It gently moves the bowels and thus removes the cause, and acts directly upon the liver and kidneys, keeping them active and strong, while its marvellous tonic properties clear the complexion, stimulates the liver, quickens the circulation, increases the flesh, brightens the eye; the nervousness speedily disappears, and the entire system recuperates and tones up to a condition of perfect and permanent health.

Laxakola, the great tonic laxative, is not only the most efficient of family remedies, but the most powerful of all. It contains no medicine, no active and no toxic. No other laxative is so safe, so gentle, so effective, so free of the LAXAKOLA. It is the only one that is so safe, so gentle, so effective, so free of the LAXAKOLA.

LAXAKOLA FOR CHILDREN. Give the children Laxakola. It is absolutely safe, being purely vegetable, containing nothing of a harmful character. It builds the life one up instead of debilitating them. It reaches every organ, cleanses and strengthens the liver and kidneys, purifies the blood and makes them hearty and strong. It tastes good. Children like it and ask for it.

At a recent single day's session of the Board County Fiscal Court, the following was appropriated, mostly for roads and paupers.

A PUBLIC TRIBUTE.

Native Ohioans in Washington Paid a Last Tribute to the Memory of McKinley.

THE MEETING WAS LARGELY ATTENDED

An Interesting Letter From Dr. M. D. Mann, One of the Dead President's Physicians, Read.

Mr. McKinley's Last Words Were: "My God, To Thee, I've Thro' It Be a Cross, It Has Had My Constant Prayer."

Washington, Oct. 7.—The sons and daughters of a President McKinley's native state of Ohio, who are now residents of Washington, Sunday paid a last public tribute to the memory of their dead congressman, governor and president, in a largely attended meeting at Chase's opera house. The gathering was held under the auspices of the Ohio Republican association, but was not confined to Ohioans. About 3,000 persons were present. The decorations were appropriate to the occasion. The marlin band furnished the music, and was stationed on the stage directly under a large crayon portrait of President McKinley, which was draped in graceful folds of black, the whole surrounded by an immense American flag. The meeting was presided over by Col. W. H. Brigham, assistant secretary of agriculture. Rev. Dr. J. H. Muir delivered the invocation, and addresses were made by Rev. Frank M. Bristol, D. H. Dr. J. H. Muir delivered the invocation, and addresses were made by Rev. Frank M. Bristol, D. H. Brigham, assistant secretary of agriculture.

An interesting feature of the meeting was the reading of a letter from Dr. M. D. Mann, one of the president's physicians, to Mr. T. M. Sullivan, the secretary of the association. It was as follows:

Buffalo, Sept. 26, 1901.—T. M. Sullivan, Esq.: My Dear Sir—As President McKinley was dying, I stood before a scene that I could not forget. I saw his last words. His wife came into his room, and he said to her, "Good-bye, all, good-bye. It is nothing, my dear, but I could not catch it. I gave out at the time the first sentence as being the most appropriate to be remembered as his last words. I am sure that you will be able to find it in the time so that there can be no question about it. Yours truly,

M. D. MANN.

A letter from President McKinley, regretting his inability to attend, was read.

STUDENT "DISCIPLINED."

Sen. E. Stockwell, of Beloit College, Roughly Handled by Students of the Preparatory Class.

Beloit, Wis., Oct. 7.—George E. Stockwell, a student in the preparatory department of Beloit College, was enticed from his room at the house of President Eaton at an early hour Sunday morning by members of the middle preparatory class. He was overpowered, divested of every article of clothing, and compelled to walk about in a state of nudity, aided by the application of switches in the hands of his tormentors. His clothing was fastened to the top of a flagpole, and was held by him sufficiently "disciplined." He was allowed to go home to plan revenge.

The outrage is the climax of a number of cases filed this year, in which the worst punishment heretofore inflicted was compelling students to walk into town after having been driven far into the country.

SOMEWHAT EXCITING!

A Young Woman Barely Prevented From Drowning Herself.

There was quite a flurry on Market street and along Front and as far South as the Mayor's office just before 9 o'clock Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. George G. McLaughlin and their comely sixteen-year-old daughter, Mattie, got off a streetcar Third and Market.

In about the tenth part of a minute the young woman was making a beeline for the river, where, as she afterward said, she "intended to end it all."

She was overtaken near Front street, and was being escorted down Second when she made another outbreak, going down Morrison's alley to Front, being again overhauled, this time by officer Newell.

She was then taken to Police Headquarters, followed by father and mother, and although she was exceedingly reticent these substantial facts were learned.

Mattie did not return home Saturday evening, and after a search her father and mother found her at her brother's home in the Sixth Ward. All three were on their way home when they left the streetcar as above stated. Among Miss Mattie's admirers is a young man named Joe Chambers, and his name was given to Chief Donovan as the author of her trouble. When she realized her condition she exhausted every effort to "end it all" by ending her life, in which she was fortunately frustrated.

She was taken home by her parents, and a warrant was issued for the arrest of Chambers, charging seduction under promise of marriage.

Digest what you Eat
Dyspepsia Cure

A healthy stomach, capable of digesting a good, square meal, is a great blessing. It keeps the body strong by insuring plenty of nourishment. In fact, it means perfect health. But something must be done when the stomach is so tired that it can't digest what you eat, for undigested food poisons the blood.

We can recommend a preparation that completely digests all classes of foods—that is KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE. It gives the stomach perfect rest and allows you to eat and enjoy the variety of food that is necessary for maintaining health. It never fails to cure indigestion, after everything else has failed. It is pleasant to take and can be used in all conditions.

"For many years I suffered from chronic indigestion, and it seemed as though nothing was going to do me any good. On the advice of a friend I commenced using Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It gave me immediate relief and I continued its use, until now I feel that I am cured."—Henry P. Cranner, Wendellville, N. Y.

Major A. T. Wood, the new President of the Tenth Kentucky Association, being called upon, supplemented Major Foley's remarks with a few personal experiences and historical facts in connection with the Regiment's services.

At its conclusion President McCarry announced that this terminated the speech-making, and that the remainder of the day would be spent in social intercourse.

On motion of Chaplain Tom Wood, the time for the next meeting was changed to the fourth Wednesday in September at Augusta.

The ladies served a bountiful dinner on the grounds, and throughout the afternoon squads of the old Vets were gathered, recounting stories of the war-time.

Colonel and Mrs. J. J. McCarry, Major Foley and Major Hoshea left Saturday on the 3:15 P. M. train for a visit to Lexington before returning to St. Paul, and the latter two for their homes in Cincinnati.

Saturday evening a large crowd attended the Campfire, the young people enjoying the dance until there was just time to get home before the advent of Sunday.

Last afternoon religious exercises were held at the Fairgrounds by Evangelist Reed—and another session of the Tenth and Sixteenth thus passed into history.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure, in all its stages and that is cancer. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Cancer being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The propounder has so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address:

An Open Letter.

We desire to say that our business since January 1st has passed the mark anticipated. We wish to be frank; therefore we are not attempting to talk to business people and put it in the form of a polished essay. The advantage of having merchandise different from your competitors is apparent, provided that the retailer is known to be reliable. Does not a good deal of advertising appear to you as though the advertisers were indulging too freely in Fine Words? Most of them seem to say something that means nothing. Names are invented for goods that have no bearing whatever to the materials, and are twisted until they are no longer relevant, all of which is done to tone the product, because the product hasn't enough of it. Fine feathers make the birds, but fine words do not make fine goods. We are strong believers in advertising, but we believe in advertising that is to plainly tell people what you have to sell, and sell it as low as is consistent with legitimate business methods.

Our spring importation of Dress Goods, White Goods, Carpets, Mattings and Housekeeping Goods generally is complete. Come and learn prices, which will be found to be as cheap as the cheapest quality considered. Respectfully,

GEORGE COX & SON.
